

The Occupation Test [print out]

Put a check mark next to each profession below in which you know someone well enough to talk to, even if you are not close to him or her. Indicate whether that person is a relative (R), friend (F), or consequential stranger (CS). Then go back to www.con Then scroll down to see what it all means and how your answers compare to national samples.

Occupations	Family?	Friend?	Consequential Stranger? administrative assistant baby sitter
bellboy
bookkeeper
CEO
computer programmer
congressperson
factory operator
farmer
janitor
hairdresser
lawyer
middle school teacher
nurse
personnel manager
police officer
production manager
professor
receptionist
security guard
taxi driver
writer			